
PROJECT NAME:

Building 941, Accommodation Block Refurbishment

CLIENT:

DIO

LOCATION:

RAF Lakenheath

M&E ORDER VALUE:

£863,000

CONTRACTOR:

Henry Brothers

Working with Main Contractor Henry Brothers, Building 941 is a refurbishment of a brick built building constructed in the mid-1960s for single service persons' living accommodation. Access to each living accommodation is via external walkways constructed in the early 1990s.

The current building consists of 80 living spaces with shared, paired bathrooms. There are central communal kitchens, laundry and sitting areas within the central cores of the building.

This is a logo owned by Royal Air Force for RAF Lakenheath. Further details: The image is the lead infobox image for the RAF Lakenheath article and is used for identification purposes.