

Underlining our commitment to providing training and career opportunities, Dodd Group' South West Projects team has welcomed its latest apprentice intake. Bradley has joined us as an electrical apprentice and William as a mechanical apprentice.

We look forward to helping them both to develop the necessary skills and attributes to build long term careers within our industry

